PROFILE

As a current student, majoring in Business Leadership and minoring in Organizational Leadership, I enjoy inspiring others in creative and personal endeavors. I have developed a strengths in sales, leading by example, and offer creative insight. My strengths are shown through my proficiency in CAD software, running sales and designs on showroom floors, and leading teams. As a constant learner and visionary, I commit myself to becoming a better leader, team player, and salesman who is able to inspire others. As a student, learning from others is vital to advance my personal and professional capabilities. Thank you for taking the time to consider my application. I am thrilled for the opportunity to utilize my strengths to generate new leads, create impactful customer connections, and to enrich fellow colleagues. I look forward to speaking with you!
